Pastor Green's Daily Encouragement

Morning folks! I hate to continue to bring you this information, but you should know that there is only one more Saturday before Christmas. Whatever you plan to do to get ready for the big day, get moving, you're running out of time. Actually, it would be better for all of us if we were ready for Jesus to arrive every day of the year, not just on Christmas Day. Can you just imagine this world if every Christian lived as though Christmas was new every morning. It can be that way, because the mercies of God are new to us daily, so there's no reason that our thankful response shouldn't be new and heartfelt. We don't just receive Jesus on Christmas Day, He is always with us, the Light of Christmas is always there to guide us, because the Light of the World came at Christmas, and His Spirit has remained with us, and in us. We have been given the light that shines through the darkness, let that light shine through you at Christmas, and during the remainder of the year as well. Today is Secular Saturday, and in tribute to my mother, I'll be playing her favorite secular Christmas song today by Brenda Lee, and it's called "Rockin' Around the Christmas Tree."
