Pastor Green's Daily Encouragement

Good morning to you as we come to the end of our Christmas weekend. Monday begins another work week, but at least it's a shorter week because of New Year's Day. How are you going to spend your Sunday? Some of you who live south of the Tonawandas and Amherst might still be digging out from the Christmas snow. Those of us in the North towns, especially in Niagara County, better known as "God's Country" can probably use a brush to move our small dusting of snow. Having that in mind, along with the knowledge that the roads are clear and safe, how about getting dressed and heading out to church this day. Yes, we're open today, and at St. Paul we have a worship service tomorrow and on New Year's Eve as well. Jesus wasn't born to us just to disappear, no, He came to stay with us, He remains in our presence, or rather, we remain in His. So get up and get ready, it's going to warm up a little today, but still dress warm, we'll leave the lights on for you, and we'll turn the heat up. God bless your first Sunday after Christmas. Our Sunday hymn of praise is sent to us from Casting Crowns, and this continuing Christmas message is "O Come, All Ye Faithful." Rejoice and be glad, the Savior is born to us.
