

December 6, 2020

Pastor Green's Daily Encouragement

Top of the morning to ya. I pray that you had a restful sleep, but now it's time to get up and get your worship on. That's what Sunday was designed for, a little time with God and our brothers and sisters in Faith. The late country-western legend Johnny Cash was frequently asked why he always wore black; his answer was because that was the color of his church clothes, that was his Sunday best, and he always wanted to give his absolute best. What are you wearing today? Sunday go to meeting black, or something more festive and colorful? I'll let you in on a little secret, God doesn't care what you wear, and neither do I, we're just happy to see you in church. I prefer to wear my Sunday best, but that's between me and God. What are you wearing to meet at His house today? I do pray that you have a church home to go to today, and I pray that you are being fed there with the truth of God's Holy Word. If someone there is changing His words, or telling you that they no longer matter, then it's time to find a new church home, one that won't lie to you just to make you feel better about yourself. The truth of God's word is unchangeable, as is He. Remember, the truth shall set you free. Find your freedom today in those words of truth. Our Sunday Hymn of Praise is "It Is Well With My Soul." Come to church today and hear some Advent music, because Jesus is getting closer.