What wondrous love is this, that our Savior would take on human flesh, then die in our place, for sins that He never committed? And then to top it all off, He gave us a day to rest and worship. He gave us this day to come to His house with other believers and offer there our praise and thanksgiving for His gifts to us. Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, and Easter is just two weeks from today. Will you be in attendance at a church today, or over the next two weeks? I pray that you are, to thank the Lord for dying on the Cross for us, because it was our sins that held Him there and none of His own. As we begin year two, this is number one, and I pray that we are all worshiping somewhere today. Give Him thanks today for His unconditional love, a love that will provide eternal benefits for all who believe in Him and in His death and resurrection, a resurrection that we will be celebrating in just two weeks. Have a most blessed Lord's Day in His love and mercy. Amen. Our Sunday Hymn is "What a Wondrous Love is This" as performed by Fernando Ortega. Peace to you.
