Pastor Green

Greetings on this Wednesday morning, a day that is loaded with promise for all of us. Today is also the final Wednesday for Lenten midweek worship as this Sunday is Palm Sunday and next week is Holy week. If you're looking for a place to worship we'll be there today at 9:30 AM and again at 7:00 PM. Next week's services are Maundy (Holy) Thursday at 7:00 PM, Good Friday at 12:00 noon and 7:00 PM. You are all welcome. This is the most solemn time of year for us who make up the church on Earth. We've read and heard about Jesus and all that He has said and done during His Earthly ministry, during the next week we will learn about how He voluntarily gives up His Divine nature to suffer and die for all of our sake. From the day that Jesus began His public ministry, right up until the day He died, He was the greatest role model that the world could ever know. Even in the face of a horrible death, Jesus showed us how to love, and how to forgive. Spend some time in worship during this time and get reintroduced to our Prince of Peace. Then ask yourself if you are measuring up as a Christian role model to those who might be watching you. Yes, I pray that we all are, beginning with me. Our Western Wednesday song fits right in with this idea of being a role model, and it is performed by Rodney Adkins. It is called "Watching You." Enjoy your day, in the name of our greatest role model . . . Christ the Lord.
