It is Friday, and for a large percentage of the world, today is Good Friday. I pray that you slept well, because I know that on the morning of the original Good Friday, our Savior Jesus got no rest as he was moved about all over the city of Jerusalem. They were working their plan to have Jesus killed, and on that day, they succeeded, but not before they saw Him viciously brutalized. Finally, when much of His life had been beaten out of Him, He was nailed to a wooden cross, where He would die, but not before He asked His Father in Heaven to forgive those who were causing His death. Ask yourself this question today, did I have anything to do with adding more pain to Jesus? We all did. Never allow yourselves to forget what Jesus endured that day to provide us with a Heavenly reward, a reward purchased with the blood of Christ. It was shed for you and me. Find a place to worship today to thank Him for what He gave you, life. Our song for this day is called "Were You There" and it is being sung by Andrea Thomas. Have a blessed day, in the blood of the Lamb of God, Who takes away the sin of the world.
