Alleluia, Christ has risen. A blessed Easter to you all today. The tomb is empty, death could not hold Him, and because of that, death will not hold all those who believe. Everything He promised came about just as He said, now we can hold fast to that blessed promise for all eternity. There are so many great moments in history that I would have loved to attend, but none like being at that tomb when Jesus stepped out on that first Easter. All humanity was changed that morning. When the world seemed hopeless, Jesus stepped out and gave us His hope. What are your plans for this Easter Sunday, I pray that they would include attending church to give thanks for the greatest gift that we have ever received . . . nothing, as in nothing remaining in the tomb. The Lord has defeated death for all time, the Lord has defeated sin for all time, and our Lord has defeated Satan for all time. All because of an empty tomb. God bless you all today with the power of Jesus as you celebrate this great new day, Resurrection Day. Our Easter song of praise is sung by sisters, ten year old Cassandra Star and her nineteen year old sister Callahan. It is "Hallelujah."
