Here I am, running a little later today. Better late than never I've learned. It's another Western Wednesday, and we have another good song for today. Before the music comes there are more important things to mention, such as the fact that there is no better friend than Jesus, He is the best friend that we have ever or will ever have. When you spend the time to think about all that He has done for us, then everything else just doesn't measure up. He is our light and our life, and everything good and special starts with Him because of His love for us. I'm going to leave a shorter than normal message today because it's so late, but that doesn't change the fact that no one has ever done as much for us as our Savior has, and He will continue to do so. Thank you Jesus. Our song is a John Denver classic, "Take Me Home Country Roads" Have a good one.
