Rise and shine, Monday has arrived. I can anticipate what you're thinking, oh no, let me go back to sleep for a couple hours. Well, we know that more sleep probably isn't part of your day, but I pray a blessed morning to all of you anyway. Have you any special plans for the day, or is it going to be a normal Monday? If you're celebrating something today, such as birthdays or anniversaries, then I pray that your celebration would be blessed by God. No matter what this day holds, always remember that God holds the day in His capable hands. He holds our lives in those same hands. Jesus had holes in His hands where He took the nails on the cross so that you and I would never need to. Yes, it's a great day to be alive because it is a new day filled with potential and promise. The promise is from Jesus that where He is, we will one day join Him. And the potential for this day is that we will have opportunities to share this information with others. It's early in the day and I've already been able to share with you, do the same today. Our Marvelous Monday song is "God is in Control" by Twila Paris. And yes, the title is correct, God is still in control.
