You've got to really wonder what I was thinking about in my sleep when I wake up with a song in my head, and it's from a fifty some year old episode of the Flintstones, "Here we come on the run with a burger on a bun?" I don't understand it either, but I do understand being one of the first people to wish you all a good Monday morning. It's going to be a great day. It doesn't matter what happens, Jesus will be with us, and everything that is good and wonderful is possible in His awesome presence. In Him alone can we find happiness that is eternal. In Him alone can we find peace that is real and perfect in every way. That is the reason that I already know that today will be super, because of Jesus. Pray in His name today, ask for God's blessings and ask also for God to take care of your families and neighbors. Try to do things according to God's Word today, and not according to what pleases us. Be lifted up today in the Love of Jesus Christ, and lift up those around you. Our marvelous Monday song is from Casting Crowns and it is called "What If His People Prayed." Peace and joy to you today.
