It's time for totally terrific Tuesday, or Taco Tuesday, whichever you prefer. Personally I always prefer a good taco, but it is still nice to have a great start to any day, and that arrived already in the form of the morning newspaper that was delivered a few minutes after I got up at 3:30 AM. There are a few things that I find necessary to properly begin my day, and that always includes the newspaper. Reading my e-mails and drinking coffee with chicory are also included in the morning rituals. Think about how God has blessed your life with your own preferences. He knows what you need, and He usually provides for those things. Indeed, we are blessed beyond our limited imaginations with grace and wonder that He can only provide for us, and He delivers these blessings daily. Once we learn to see His hand in everything good, then we begin to see Him all over our lives. He gave us this great new day, and He gave us the greatest gift that the world has ever received, the gift of life eternal and everlasting through the sacrifice of His Son, our Savior Jesus. Wake up and find God sightings everywhere, including the coffee or tea you drink to start your day. Find God in the sleep you received from Him. Find God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit in every part of your life, and seek Him this day. Our song to help us prepare for this new day is "Lord I Need You" by Chris Tomlin. This is a song just loaded with truth, and the truth will set us free.
