Top of the morning to everyone. It looks to be a great day, weather wise as well as in the blessings we receive today. Yay Jesus, Thank you for everything. It promises to be a long and exhausting but fun day with services at St. Paul at 8:00 and our second 10:45 service at Oppenheim Park prior to our St, Paul family picnic. My truck is loaded with stuff, and Cindy's Escape is loaded and ready to go too. I pray that you're going to be there. Cindy and I were out early yesterday evening and we were the first people to come upon a single vehicle crash on New Rd. in Amherst. God was clearly involved because the driver, who obviously had a bit too much to drink was all over the road running into things prior to flipping his truck on its side into a ditch going the opposite way that he was traveling. Had there been another vehicle in either lane, there would have been injuries, or worse. Had a pedestrian or bicyclist been near there, it would have been tragic. It could have been so horrible, yet God spared the lives of innocent people, and even spared the life of the intoxicated driver. It also reminded me of what I don't miss about being in the police dept., directing traffic, which I did until Amherst Police arrived. I was more than happy to turn it over to them. Just a reminder, if you're going to be drinking, please don't drive, the life you safe may be your own, or that of a friend or loved one. For such a time as this we were sent down that road yesterday, and for such a time as this I want to remind you that God loves you and wants the best for you, but He doesn't always save you from your own foolish mistakes. A driver escaped serious injury yesterday, but he didn't escape the law, we seldom do. Have a wonderful Lord's Day in His love and mercy, and thank Him because He will provide you with all that you need to live today, and everyday. Our Sunday song of praise is "As the Deer" by Robin Mark.
