

August 23, 2021

G'Day mates, welcome to another marvelous Monday. So it all begins again, a new work week and another week of God's love and blessings. That's the biggest reason to get up today, you have blessings awaiting you, we all do, and your blessings may not be the same as mine, but many of them will be. If you're reading this today then the chances are good that you have a roof over your head and food on your table. Those are great blessings, and many people around the world do not have these same things. Some through poverty, others as a result of natural disasters. Indeed, we are loved and given more than we deserve. God knows our needs before we do, and He provides them. Say it with me again today, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." Say it to yourselves frequently, remind yourself of all that you receive from Him, especially remember the blessings of eternal life that Jesus won for you on the Cross. Don't ever forget this, and please never take that gift for granted, Jesus suffered way too much for us to act as though it wasn't the most important event in human history. Be thankful, be grateful, be humble. Our song for this beautiful Monday morning is "My Jesus" by Anne Wilson. Be strong in God's love today.