Up and at'em, it's Friday and you don't want to waste your weekend that starts today. Well, for most people it does. It's probably a good idea not to waste any day of our lives, as we are not guaranteed another after today. This is the best reason to be thankful for every day, as we never know how many more we have on the horizon. Within the last twenty-four hours I've learned of two members of the NTHS Class of 77 who lost their lives this month. One day we'll all reach that point, and I know that I am ready to attain eternal life through the life, death, and resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ. It is my daily prayer that you have the same knowledge and faith that leads you safely home to the Father's Heavenly realm. That's when the real weekend begins for all of us, and it will never end, sounds good doesn't it. The only thing that ensures that is faith in Jesus; keep learning, keep praying, keep living a life that shows that you are a child of God. One day we will all be Home Free. Our Fabulous Friday song, by no coincidence is "Home Free" by Wayne Watson. Have a super weekend. Jesus loves you.
