

September 9, 2021

This will be my third attempt at getting this post up today. It would seem as though someone doesn't like to hear about Jesus nor 9/11. A blessed Thursday morning to you. Those blessings are new to all of us today, compliments of our God- Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. No matter where life finds each of us today, have no fear, Jesus is already there. He arrives before us with the full power of His forgiveness, and Love. In every situation in our lives, good and not so good, Jesus is there for us. He was with us on September 11, 2001, and He remains close to us even today. He directed us to give our own blood that day. He guided us to find ways that we could serve our brothers and sisters in faith. And He has protected us greatly. This twentieth anniversary of the fateful day will live in most of our memories, but I will always remember how He called us together to lift each other up. As I promised yesterday, I am finishing the week with songs that came about because of the attacks on 9/11. Let us never forget. Today's song is by Aaron Tippin and it is called "Where the Stars & Stripes & the Eagle Fly."
