They did it again, as I sent the post, it got caught in the spin cycle and disappeared. I must have mentioned Jesus too much today. Probably violated their community standards again. So, I'll try again. Good morning on this totally terrific Tuesday. It is going to be a most glorious day. How do I know, because our Creator Father made this day just for His children, and we are called to rejoice in it. His mercy, His goodness, His grace is never ending. And if that weren't enough, we have been given the greatest gift of all, a Savior Who has prepared the way to Heaven for all of us who believe in Him. Every time we call on Him He is there, He is always with us, as is His Holy Spirit. We are a little over three months from Christmas arriving, and we already know that the best present of all is Jesus. He is our everything, and everything good and wonderful comes directly from His and His great love for us. So have yourself a most tremendous Tuesday in the name of the Lord. Our song for this day is called "Every Time" by CeCe Winans. Enjoy!
