Good morning friends, it's Western Wednesday in these parts, and though it's not going to be a beautiful day outside, it's always a great day to be alive in God's Kingdom, living under His grace and mercy. Yes, His love will direct our day, and we will see His greatness all around, all we have to do is look for it. We lost a beloved St. Paul sister late last week and today we celebrate her life, and her life of faith. We can see our Lord in this as well, because we are confident that her faith brought her directly into the gates of Heaven, where she met her Savior. That was the culmination of her Earthly years of faithful living, and she is now enjoying the final miracle of life, eternity with her Lord and Savior. We will all have the opportunity to meet Jesus one day, and those who believed in Him in life will find their final, and greatest reward, in His name, according to His promises. What a wonderful day that will be. In honor of our lost sister, our song for this day is a country song sung by Elvis Presley, "Green, Green Grass of Home." God bless all of you this day, and all days.
