Wow, that was just incredible. I slept right through the hours that I always wake up for. I never saw, 3:00, 4:00, or 5:00 AM and slept all the way to 6:00. I can't remember doing that since 2001. Many of you know about my multiple disc herniations, that is why I never sleep through the night, but last night was different, Jesus gave me a full night of peace and rest. Thank You Jesus. We can never say it enough, what a Friend we have in Jesus. He knows what we need even before we know, and He delivers. It's going to be a great day to be alive in His Earthly kingdom, and it started very nicely. My prayers include the same for all of you, be still and know that He is God. He will be exulted in the Heavens and on the Earth. Peace be to you this fabulous Friday. What is troubling you today? Leave it with our Savior. No matter what we are struggling with in life, Jesus is the most qualified to handle it for us, so give it to Him and forget about it. Our song for this day is called "Friend of a Wounded Heart" by Wayne Watson, and if it is a great song, listen close, it's about us. Have a great day, in Jesus' care.
