

Wednesday, October 13, 2021

Up and at em, it's a brand new day we've been given, time to enjoy it. Well, maybe enjoy it after you're better rested. Of course there is no reason not to enjoy the rest that we're given. But, once you wake up for good today, honor your Creator with thanksgiving for what you've been given today. Always remember this . . . if there is good in your life, then it is a gift from God. All good gifts come from Him, so be thankful for all of them. I'm thankful this morning for the ability to read the calendar, even though I got up and searched for a good song to use today. After finally finding one, I remembered that today is Western Wednesday, and my search continued. At least I have tomorrow's song chosen already. One of the greatest gifts that we have been given is music, in many forms. There are an incredible amount of songs out there for us to enjoy, and today's was recorded by Marty Robbins back in 1957. Have yourselves a God filled day as you begin with "A White Sport Coat and a Pink Carnation."