A prayerful Saturday to everyone. I'll be praying for you this morning, as many have contacted me with information related to illness and other dire situations that you are dealing with. Prayer is the one thing that we can all do for someone in need. You don't need a seminary degree to call upon God through His Son our Savior Jesus. He hears your prayers just as He hears mine. I'm asking everyone to spend some time in prayer today, for you and your families, and for friends and neighbors who are suffering in one form or another. Heavenly Father, in the name of Jesus I ask that You would bring healing, comfort, and joy to my friends today. Please also move the hearts and minds of all to lift each other up in prayer to You. If you're hurting somehow today, that prayer and others are for you. He is our Great Physician, and there is nothing that He cannot cure, hand it over to Him, remembering also that Doctors and other health care professionals are gifts from God. Peace to all of you today, in the name of the Lord. Our secular Saturday song is "Heard It in a Love Song" by the Marshall Tucker Band. Prayers are ongoing!
