

Friday, November 5, 2021

Fantastic Friday to everyone. I'm praying that your day begins and ends in a similar fashion. Yes, it would be wonderful if we all had a fantastic day, and there is no reason that we can't. Take some time today to find the blessings in your life. Seek the love of God in His beautiful creation. Do as the late Mac Davis once sang about as you stop and smell the roses. Find the innocence of a children, and listen to their laughter. Take a walk and smell the crisp, clean morning air. These are all gifts from the Lord, embrace them, and enjoy them. He made them for our enjoyment, so do that. I have the honor of joining a young couple in marriage this afternoon. And this is certainly a union that God has blessed in many ways. It is heartening to see His hand at work in people's lives, and today will be just like that. He is an awesome God and He reigns over all creation, including your lives and mine. Be glad for that. Our song for this Friday is appropriately named "He Reigns" and it is performed by the Newsboys. It is perfect for our use today. God bless all of you with His mercy, grace, and healing. Amen!