Wake up and smell the coffee, it is Sunday morning, and we are fast approaching the time to head to worship. This is the day that the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it. If you're reading this then God has given you this new day, be thankful for that. Stop into one of His churches today and honor Him with your physical presence. He is expecting us. This reminds me of Jesus in the Garden of Gethsemane where He asked His disciples to stay awake with Him as He knew that the authorities would be coming to arrest Him. Of course they all fell asleep on Him. Now we are being asked to wake up, get out of bed, and go to worship Him. Those disciples let Jesus down when He needed them, and I never want to be accused of letting Him down again, so I'll be in church with you today. We can always nap in the afternoon, or after the game. If the Bills play like they did last week, we can turn the TV off and start our nap early. I'd rather see them play well. Our song for this morning is 10,000 reasons by Matt Redman. It was recorded being performed live in Times Square. What an awesome sight seeing so many believers together in that place. Have a wonderful Sunday in the name of the Lord.
